

V40 PREMIUM

SPECIFICATIONEN

- Made from 7mm Neopren and heavy-duty nylon/polyester material
- Highly visible color
- Donning in less than two minutes
- Meets all SOLAS requirements for a 6-hour immersion
- Emergency light fixture can be added to the breast (optional)
- Buddyline included
- Metall Zipper
- self-extinguishing
- POLAR-Code Ready

Available Sizes:

145 - 175 cm: Model 165

160 - 195 cm: Model 185

180 - 210 cm: Model 205

Introducing our survival suit V40 Premium Outer material made of hardly flammable, tear-proof nylon in orange, inner neoprene layer in yellow (even after water contact the orange structure of the nylon is preserved), 3 times glued and watertightly sewn on the outside with a tear-proof thread, excellent insulation even when water penetration occurs due to a damage of the suit. Hood and gloves attached to the suit, face-flap for additional insulation, Reflecting tape on arms, legs, breast and head, signalling whistle, attachment possibility for a strobe light, pocket with buddy line and stainless carbine snap, each suit individually pressure tested. This suit provides you the best warmth-protection possible - even when operating in temperature ranges around the freezing point, 7.0 mm neoprene material, foam filled pillow provides buoyancy, heavy-duty harness for helicopter lift-up, large breastpocket. neoprene, excellent performance in cold water temperatures, fulfils all SOLAS requirements, foam filled pillow provides buoyancy, heavyduty harness for helicopter lift-up, large breast-pocket. The neoprene itself is self-extinguishing. Suit can be used without lifejacket

IMMERSIONSUIT.DE

